

Name :

age :

School :

Parent/guardian email (if applicable):

postal address :

Fairytale-in-verse title :

signed :

Mr Tallstory's
Alternative Fairytale
Verse Competition

ADDRESS FOR ENTRIES: WITH WORDS
1ST FLOOR
29 MARKET STREET
BRADFORD-ON-AVON
BA15 1LL

Mr Tallstory's

Alternative Fairytale Verse Competition

Can you write a fairytale in verse?

To enter:

Your verse fairytale can be anything between four and thirty lines long. You can even mix up well-known fairytales, or give them a different ending.

The competition is open to everybody who will be twelve or under on the competition closing date, Thursday August 31st 2006.

Age will be considered during judging of the competition.

Kids - the verses should be your own work -

if your parents are interfering, get them to write their own fairytale in verse and send it to us marked

"grown-up" in the age bit.

You can write or type your fairytale-in-verse entry.

Address for entries:

With Words

1st Floor

29 Market Street

Bradford-on-Avon BA15 1LL

Prize-giving and Performance - FREE EVENT

There will be a short prize-giving & performance event from winning stories, held at the Bristol Old Vic Theatre, King Street, in the Stalls Bar, during the Bristol Poetry Festival, from 2.15 - 2.45 p.m.

This is just before Children's poet Valerie Bloom's event at 3 p.m.

1st Prize

£20 Book Token and With Words goodie bag.

Runners up will all receive With Words goodie bags.

Good Luck from Mr Tallstory!

www.withwords.co.uk